

Announcing
the grand opening of the Goddess Temple of Ashland

a sanctuary for the nurturance of the divine feminine in all

"It is I who am you; and it is you who are me
And wherever you are,
I am there.

For I am sown in all:
and you collect me from wherever you wish.
And when you collect me, it is your own self that you collect."

Community Ceremonies begin at 1:30pm March 19th, in the community room
of the Jackson Wellsprings

Please join us to create an afternoon of celebratory ritual & invocation with a procession to open the temple together.

ALL are welcome and ALL are honored - men, women, and children.

"Beyond logic, beyond religion"
