

Eleventh Gathering

OF THE INTERNATIONAL COUNCIL OF
THIRTEEN INDIGENOUS GRANDMOTHERS

July 26-29, 2012

Northern Cheyenne Reservation, Lame Deer, Montana

"A NATION IS NOT CONQUERED UNTIL THE WOMEN'S HEARTS ARE ON THE GROUND."
CHEYENNE PROVERB

Join Cheyenne Grandmother, Margaret Behan, Red Spider Woman as she hosts this Gathering of the International Council of Thirteen Indigenous Grandmothers.

The Thirteen Grandmothers represent a global alliance of prayer, education and healing for the earth, all Her inhabitants, all the children, and for the next seven generations to come. Their ceremonies and healing work around the globe has been the catalyst for profound change.

The Grandmothers will be joined by Dr. Connie Buck and Dr. Eduardo Duran who will speak on "Healing Cultural Trauma."
